

School Bulletin Friday 24th May 2024

I have to start this week's bulletin with a message of thanks for the enormous amount of goodwill and support received during the process to become the permanent headteacher at Luxulyan school. It has been a testing, yet extremely rewarding time and I couldn't be happier about finally having some certainty over my role here moving forward. The school community really shone and your children were a real credit to you. We have lots of plans for the next school year and it is fantastic to be able to play my role in implementing them.

We have just one half-term left and lots still to squeeze in with residentials, an activity week, times table checks for year 4 and all of the usual offerings provided by the school. We look forward to seeing you after our short break on Monday 3rd June.

Have a great week.
