

School Bulletin Friday 15th November 2024

Another busy week gone and already we are halfway through November and Christmas will soon be upon us.

This week has seen our Act Of Remembrance, a home football match, NSPCC workshops, children taking part in a KS1 multi-skills final and our cake sale for Children in Need. Thank you as always for your support.

Don't forget that we have the Book Fair running next week. This is open from 3pm if you want to come in without your child in order to purchase Christmas presents.

We also have parent consultations for Beech, Sycamore and Oak next week. Please make sure you contact your class teacher to arrange an appointment if you have not already done so. I hope you all have a great weekend and we'll see you next week.

Miss Allison

Tour and Explore Open Sessions

Is your child due to start school in September 2025? If so, why don't you come along to one of our sessions to meet the staff and tour of the school

Thursday 21st November at 3.30pm

Tuesday 26th November at 3.30pm

Morning Drop Offs

We have noticed that a number of pupils are arriving after 8:50 am. A polite reminder that our drop off window is from 8:40am - 8:50am. The gates will be shut at 8:50am and we have to then record your child as late.

If a pupil receives several lates on the register we are then obliged to formally notify you in the same manner as for low attendance.

We really value our positive relationships with our community and appreciate your support with ensuring pupils are ready to learn on time.

Best regards...Mr Cooper
