

School Bulletin Friday 3rd November 2023

It has been a very busy first week back and teaching staff have mentioned how well the children have settled back into their class routines after the half term. Many thanks for your support with our stormy conditions on Thursday, it is never an easy decision to delay or close a school but it was the right decision to delay opening on this occasion. Thanks to the families who came to our parent forum on Wednesday. It would be great to see even more at our next forum in January.

Have a fantastic weekend.

Nathan Cooper - Headteacher

Go Cornish

We are pleased to announce that having achieved our Go Cornish for Primary Schools Bronze Award in July, we are now going to start working towards our Silver award.

Our new Kryw Kernewek have met twice now and have got lots of exciting ideas for the future. Each week they will be sharing some vocabulary with the rest of the school – one word/phrase will be for Ash and Beech Class and one word/phrase will be for Sycamore/Oak Class. We are also going to share them in the bulletin each week so that you can have a go at using them at home too.

This week our word/phrases are:

Ash and Beech	Oak and Sycamore
dydh da (pronounced dith dah) hello	myttin da (pronounced mittin dah) good morning

Oll an gwella/All the best
Kryw Kernewek

Children in Need & Anti-bullying week

During the summer, CELT sent out a parent/carer survey. Many thanks for your generally very positive feedback. In order for the school to continue to improve we have also reflected upon some of your suggestions for improvement. One of these areas was adequate notification of school events such as dressing up days. I am pleased to be able to inform you of our next event which will take place on FRIDAY 17th NOVEMBER.

This date coincides with anti-bullying week and Children in Need. Anti-bullying week theme is an 'odd sock' wearing day and the theme for Children in Need is 'spots'. We would like to combine both events and ask pupils to wear 'odd spotty socks'. Pupils should wear normal school uniform other than their odd spotty socks. We will also be holding a cake sale to support Children in Need and we will shortly set up the payment on Parentpay with a suggested minimum donation of £1.

I hope that this provides sufficient notice for you to prepare your socks and cakes and we will continue to try give as much notice as possible.
