Autumn Term - Newsletter 6

Thank you to those of you who have been able to donate items for the Food Bank today. We will contact them on Monday next week to arrange the pickup. We will post a photo on Dojo and Facebook next week of the generous collection!

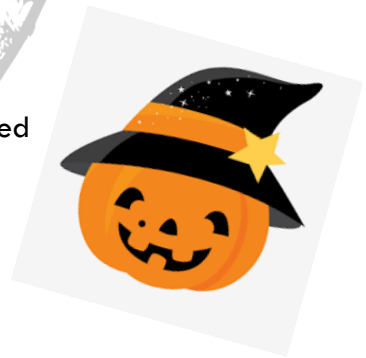

Next week is already the last week of half term. For me personally, it is my last week at Luxulyan school before my maternity leave starts!

Mr Gynn will be increasing his days in school and Mrs Williams will increase from part-time to full time to become 'acting' Head of School also. I am sure they will work together successfully to continue to drive Luxulyan forward during my leave. As I am also SENDCo, Gabby Westland (current SENDCo at Mevagissey school) will become the SENDCo at Luxulyan during this time to continue to support our pupils with additional needs.

On Friday next week, together with PALS, for a bit of early Halloween fun pupils will be invited to come into school in fancy dress for a suggested donation of £1 each in a named envelope to go in a collection box in their classroom which will be quarantined – NO money to the school office please.

Please be mindful of appropriate footwear for the duration of the day.

Positive thought of the week:

Happy Friday!

Mrs L-D-L.

If you have good thoughts they will shine out of your face like sunbeams and you will always look lovely.

STARS OF THE WEEK

Ash Class

Grace is doing fantastically well at learning and remembering her Set 3 phonics sounds.

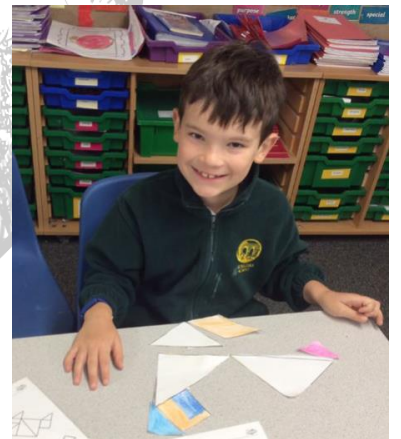

Beech Class

She is such a hard worker, a great friend and class mate.

Sycamore Class

For his organisational skills in comparing 6 different leaflets in our persuasive writing

Oak Class

She is star of the week for Oak class because she has shown great maturity with her peers both in her learning and in the playground environment. She is settling well into the role of a year 6 and a house captain and is a very positive role-model for all of our younger pupils too. Well done!
