

School Bulletin Friday 13th December 2024

It's nearly time! We have a fantastic, festive week planned for the school next week and it should be an amazing set of events. I really enjoyed the Christmas Fayre yesterday, arranged with energy and festive spirit, by Mrs Fox.

Events like the fayre really exemplify what our vision is for the school. People coming together, smiling faces, sharing our school with the community and working together for the good of this very special village.

We will have one final bulletin next Friday which will be full of photos from next week. I hope you navigate the Christmas shopping this weekend.

Would you like to be in the Luxulyan Outdoor Nativity?

Sunday 22nd December at 2.30 pm

meet at the Church before we travel to 'Bethlehem' (the shelter at LEGGSI) followed by refreshments.

Join us for an outdoor retelling of the Christmas story with live animals! We are looking for adults and children for mostly non-speaking roles - including Mary and Joseph, a star, angels, shepherds and wise men - come and join in as a family group or an individual - more the merrier! Come dressed as your favourite nativity character (there are a few costumes available from church but contact us in advance to borrow them!)

For further information contact Shelley 07761798220

Wet weather alternative - remain in the church!
