Embracing Community, Shaping Futures

School Bulletin Friday 20th December 2024

What a fantastic week we have had! It has been a real pleasure to see the whole school and community together for a whole host of events this week. I hope it has set everybody up for the holidays.

The Autumn term has a bit of a reputation in educational circles. It is usually 14 to 15 weeks in total and comes as the nights draw in and illnesses take hold. I am so proud of the efforts of pupils and staff to ensure that this key first term has been a success for all.

Looking ahead to 2025 we have a new CEO of CELT (Dan Morrow) who is apparently a fan of Luxulyan already. We look forward to working with him from January 1st. There are many sporting events already signed up for in January and February and a project with Par Library. As community events are so important to us we will also be meeting with volunteers from the Glebe Land Project to investigate how we can use the area for outdoor learning.

For now, rest up and enjoy the holidays and we look forward to seeing you all ready to go again on January 6th.
