

School Bulletin Friday 1st December 2023

Once again this week the Cornish weather showed how unpredictable it can be. A huge thankyou for your support as the difficult decision was made to close yesterday. On Tuesday we welcomed Mrs Williams and several of her staff from Port Isaac school back into the building and the children were very pleased to see her. She commented on how positive the environment in school was and how focused and calm the children were in their classrooms. We are very aware of how busy this time of year can be in schools as we near Christmas. I would encourage you to look at our 'Last week of Christmas Dates' planner to help you to stay ahead of things.

Finally, we will have several visitors to the school from CELT next Tuesday on one of our 'Challenge Days'. Whilst this is a busy day for the staff and pupils I think it is reassuring for you to know that we are held to account for the educational provision we provide for your children and that it is conducted in a spirit of mutual support and professionalism.

Two weeks to go!

Have a fantastic weekend.

St Austell Festival of Music and Speech

Over the past week a large group of pupils from key stage 2 have been taking part in a variety of speech and music activities. Our pupils have performed amazingly well. Mrs Allison will provide a full report next week but I thought we should acknowledge the significant amount of work that Mrs Allison and Miss Allison have put in to ensure your children can perform at the very highest standards. In a week where it has been identified that arts subjects are increasingly being reduced in secondary schools across the country it is fantastic to see our pupils being given a chance to express themselves creatively.

Last week of Clubs

Reminder – Next week is our last week of after school clubs. New clubs for the Spring Term will be sent out shortly.
